Fight the

1 Timothy 6:12

THANKFUL FOR PAUL

John Hines

It is a great sadness that some, if not many, in the religious world show some disdain for the apostle Paul. Some see him as some sort of radicalized Jew whose aim was to develop his own following. Some simply find his letters unacceptable and they reject those portions of Scripture, confining themselves to the “red letters”. How sad to reject the, “chosen vessel of Mine to bear My name before Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel” (Acts 9:15). We should be thankful for Paul and all that he did for Jesus’ sake.

Look at the letter to the Galatians. What should we be thankful for?

- That Paul let go (1:11-17) – In Judaism, Paul was elite. He was in the upper tier. He had the teaching, the zeal, and the pedigree. Perhaps it would not be inappropriate to describe him as almost the perfect embodiment of the law, and he was willing to let it go. He who lived for the law would deny himself and die to the law (2:19). Whether a man has little or much, it is not easy to let go. Paul had much, and in letting go, he gained much more (2:19). Let us lose our lives that we may live.
- That Paul fought the good fight – How strongly would Paul fight for the Lord and for this new covenant? He withstood another apostle (2:11-21)! If you are thankful that we are not bound (5:1) to keep the law pertaining to circumcision, sabbath-keeping, dietary requirements, or other such things, be thankful for Paul. His fighting is found in his scripturally teaching the Galatians. His fighting is found in warning them about false teachers (1:9, 3:1, 5:7-12). Let us be willing to fight for what is right and against what is hypocritical (like Peter), ineffective (like the old law), and the leaven of sinful heretics (like the Judaizers).
- That Paul persevered in his trials (4:13-15) – Many have speculated what Paul’s trial in the flesh was. Perhaps it was something involving his eyesight, based on these verses. In his conclusionary remarks he writes, “See with what large letters I have written to you in my own hand” (6:11). No scribe was used for this letter. Regardless of what the trial was, we are thankful that Paul did not give up because of it.

We are thankful for Paul because the Lord was living within Paul (2:20). Paul was doing what Jesus had done. We are thankful for the Lord and thankful for those that follow the Lord, showing us the way.
