"I DON'T PREACH ON SIN"

Jefferson David Tant

In case you're not familiar with the title of this article, it's a quote from the well-known denominational preacher, Joel Osteen. The whole quote says: "I don't preach on sin. God hasn't called me to do that. I want my people to feel good." Osteen's Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas has an attendance on Sundays of some 45,000 people.

Wow! So, if some who attend services are liars, thieves, adulterers or other sinners, do not make them feel bad and ask them to repent. Don't criticize them. Just make them feel good. Help them to be content in their sins.

One wonders how Osteen can claim to be a "Gospel" preacher when his philosophy of preaching is obviously in direct contradiction to God's Word with respect to dealing with sin.

Jesus Christ was very plain in his teaching concerning sin. Notice Christ's words to the religious leaders during His time on earth: "THIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME. 'BUT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING AS DOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN.'" (Matthew 15:8-9)

We read of the Apostle Paul dealing with sin in various passages, including I Corinthians 6:9-11: "Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God. Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God."

The apostle Paul encouraged the young evangelist Timothy to "preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction." (I Timothy 4:2)

And while there are some negative things to consider, there is also a positive side. As Paul had some good things to say on occasion: "And now I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified." (Acts 20:32) "I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea" (Romans 16:1)

Note John's words to the church in Philadelphia: "And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: He who is holy, who is true, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says this: 'I know your deeds. Behold, I have put before you an open door which no one can shut, because you have a little power, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name.'" (Revelation 3:7-8)

So, let us be aware of the need to correct, rebuke and condemn sin when necessary, as well as to commend and be positive when we can be. That encompasses the Whole Gospel.
