A SERVANT OF THE LORD

Brad Phillips

In 2 Timothy 2:24-26, the apostle Paul penned some qualities that a servant of the Lord must possess. Knowing that, let's take a look at these must have qualities. Beginning with, a servant of the Lord...

Must Not Quarrel.

To "not quarrel" means, "do not cause a complaint or dispute." The wise man wrote, "It is honorable for a man to stop striving, Since any fool can start a quarrel" (Proverbs 20:3). You see, as a servant of the Lord we should always seek to avoid contention, and we should always strive to be kind and peaceable to all (Ref. Romans 12:18; Ephesians 4:32).

Must Be Gentle To All.

Many characterize "gentleness" by being, "mild tempered." The apostle Paul compares the gentleness expressed by himself and others when they preached the gospel to those in Thessalonica, to how a nursing mother cherishes her own children (Ref. 1 Thessalonians 2:6-8). Also, Jesus said, "Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls" (Matthew 11:29). You see, Christ possessed a gentle attitude, and as His servants, we too need to do our best to imitate Him by likewise being gentle to all.

Must Be Able To Teach.

To "be able to teach" means, "the ability to apply the truth with clarity." Paul, advised Timothy to, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15). Friends, in order to be able to teach the truth with clarity to others, we must study God's word, so that we may know the truth and how to rightly divide it. So, let's diligently study God's word, and let's be able to teach it to others.

Must Be Patient.

To "be patient" is, "to be steadfast during times of opposition, longsuffering, or forbearing." Paul exhorted, "warn those who are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all" (1 Thessalonians 5:14). Now, although patience is not always easy to come by, we need to be mindful of this exhortation, and as a servant of the Lord, let's strive to be patient with all, just as the Lord is patient with us (Ref. 2 Peter 3:9).

Must Humbly Correct Those In Opposition.

How does one humbly correct those in opposition? Well, one does this by gently instructing those who oppose the truth. Notice what Paul instructed, "Brethren, if a man is overtaken in any trespass, you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness, considering yourself least you also be tempted" (Galatians 6:1). You see, it is important to humbly and gently correct those in opposition, for Paul goes on to explain the importance of this to Timothy when he says, "...if God perhaps will grant them repentance, so that they may know the truth, and that they may come to their senses and escape the snare of the devil..." (2 Timothy 2:25-26).

My beloved brethren, let us all strive to not quarrel, let's be gentle to all, able to teach, patient, and let's humbly correct those in opposition.
